

Evan Waterman

I was born in Dorset, in the village of Sturminster Marshall. I am currently in my third term on Corfe Mullen Parish Council.

I am interested in local history, and serving our village and the needs of its residents.

My hobbies are family, history, reading and the Foresters Friendly society, of which I am currently Chairman.